

A man wearing a grey t-shirt, khaki pants, safety glasses, and orange ear protection is kneeling in a deep, narrow trench. He is holding a hose that leads to a STIHL water pump. The pump is a white and orange unit with a black handle, connected to a long white hose. The pump is situated on a grassy area next to the trench. The background shows a line of green trees under a clear blue sky. The overall scene is bright and sunny, suggesting a clear day.

STIHL

IMPRESSIVE PUMP CAPACITY

Water pump with high vertical and horizontal pump capacity of up to 250 l/min = 15 m³/h at up to 8 m flow height and 27 m pumping height. Robust harness. The standard filter cage protects the tool against intake of large particles, and the high-quality clamps allow easy hose assembly. The foam filter can be serviced quickly.
